A. Annual Summary for Grant Activities

The Health eWorkforce Consortium has fired on all pistons in Year 2. In the curriculum development area 33 programs (13 more than planned) have been implemented. In many cases after-pilot review and course revisions are complete and courseware ready for upload to the DoL repository. An intensive two-year collaboration with Stanford (formerly Carnegie Mellon) Open Learning Initiative has resulted in a freely available online self-paced Health Information Technology Fundamentals course for faculty and individual learners (<http://oli.stanford.edu/health-technology>), and prepares learners for the Certified Associate in Health Information & Management Systems certification examination. It marks a giant step forward for transitioning military and underserved learners towards gaining entrance to the high demand, high wage health information technology sector. Cloud based academic access to electronic health records and supporting curricula (the EMR STAR initiative) required significant repositioning. After extensive communication the original contractor's agreement was terminated, the contract put to competitive bid and a new highly qualified contractor secured July 1, 2014. Since that time all technical aspects required to make an open source application available for faculty pilot and supporting the activity has been on time and on budget. The original estimate of 5 electronic medical record systems implemented for piloting has necessarily been revised to two systems plus the creation of much needed simulations. The national Veterans Career Services Initiative is providing far more extensive assistance to transitioning military personnel than envisioned in the scope of work. E-mentoring, monthly webinars, social media connection and annual conference presence all launched successfully in this year. Health IT employers have been engaged in best veterans hiring practice review as well as internship development. Consortium administration has concentrated on maintaining high quality standards for academic programs and deliverables, and fiscal and reporting compliance. An all co-grantee in person meeting was held to augment monthly virtual continuous improvement / Consortium PM meetings. Lead staff made on site support / monitoring visits to all co-grantee campuses and virtually with contractors. A remediation plan for one co-grantee was developed and significant progress towards it realized in the remaining months of the grant year.

B. Status Update on Leveraged Resources

Provide an update on the organizations that contributed the resources:

The Consortium Q8 leverage total is $732,561.18. This sum reflects two primary sources: the difference between Consortium colleges' negotiated indirect cost rate and the Consortium allowed 8% indirect cost, and the curriculum development work provided by the Open Learning Initiative. The Open Learning Initiative has detailed $146,728.50 of leverage in the January-September, 2014 interval.

Provide an update on the ways in which the resources were used during the current quarter:

The Open Learning Initiative selected the Health eWorkforce Consortium for their highest level of curriculum development assistance offered to grantees, through Gates Foundation funding. This intense effort, resulted in the design and implementation of a web-based interactive learning environment for a Certified Associate in Health Information & Management Systems exam preparatory course, which can be found here: <http://oli.stanford.edu/health-technology>

Comments:

The difference between Consortium colleges' negotiated indirect cost rates and the Consortium allowed 8% indirect costs had not been reported as leverage by many colleges in previous quarterly reports. The Q8 leverage report includes totals (the difference between negotiated indirect cost rate and allowed 8%) not yet reported from Q1-Q8, and is now current for all Consortium colleges.

During this quarter, did you receive any additional leveraged resources beyond what is listed in your statement of work?

Yes

C. Status Update on Employer(s) Involvement

Discuss how the required employer(s) has been involved during the current phase of the project.

The WA Health Information Industry-Education Council (WHIIEC) is a forum comprised of education institutions, industry, and associations seeking to align educational offerings in Health Information Technology. The WA Health Care Authority (HCA) is responsible for organizing the WHIIEC and providing support for states interested in replicating the model. HCA staff have reached out to NOVA to help them establish a HIIEC for Northern Virginia as it is NOVA's commitment set forth in their MOU.

Outline specific roles and contributions of the employer(s) during this quarter.

Consortium colleges are attending professional association and networking events to connect with employers regarding employment and internship opportunities for students. Object Oriented Design Group is prepared to take on students as paid interns. Island Hospital provided a contact for a potential internship site. Employers are also continuing to serve on Consortium colleges advisory boards, providing valuable feedback on academic programs and recommending changes/updates to curricula.

Identify any challenges encountered/resolved in the development and management of the employer involvement.

As reported previously, establishing apprenticeship pilot sites is a major hurdle. Some progress was made on Apprentice engagement with Madigan Army Medical Center (MAMC). Our Veterans Affairs contractor researched issues raised by MAMC personnel during the July 2014 meeting and delivered that information to the MAMC Chief of Staff (LTC Fisher). LTC Fisher asked for a meeting in Oct 2014 with many of his key staff personnel and Bellevue College to discuss Apprenticeship concepts.

Discuss new employers and commitments that may have been added to support the project.

Consortium colleges are forging new connections with employers. 1) Clark College connected with the American Red Cross at a Veterans Stand Down event. 2) NOVA held preliminary meetings with the Spectrum Group, who has access to federal contractors, HIT programs at multiple agencies, and Veteran related HIT programs. 3) Pierce College finalized paperwork with Multicare, allowing HIT students to complete internships with Multicare. 4) Spokane Community College refers completers to local staffing

Comments:

CONTINUED FROM PREVIOUS: agency Aerotek, which provides pre-screening for employers and mock interviews for students. 5) Whatcom Community College brought on a new clinic where Nursing students can complete their clinical.

Have you had any consultation or advisory meetings with business or employer partners during this quarter?

Yes

Were there any direct hires of program of study completers by employer partners during this quarter?

Yes

Were internships or other work-based learning opportunities posted during this quarter?

Yes

Did you acquire any additional employer partners during this quarter?

Yes

D. Timeline for Grant Activities and Deliverables

General Comments:

The Health eWorkforce Consortium is on time and exceeding goals in all areas with one exception. We are only 85 participants short of our Consortium goal, with a full year remaining.

FEDERALLY REGISTERED VETERANS HEALTH IT APPRENTICESHIP: Development is on time , pilot implementation is not yet underway. Referencing the Project Work Plan, apprenticeship activities are not technically late however withdrawal from the initiative by the intended partner, the U.S. Dept of Veterans Affairs, and subsequently a series of interested federal, state and private sector potential collaborators has changed completion prospects. We continue to work with the DoL Office of Apprenticeship, DoE Office of Career, Technical, and Adult Education, and the most recent apprenticeship prospect, Madigan Army Medical Center. In addition we have added another deliverable commitment, a health IT employers guide to apprenticeship and partnering with a community college. HEALTH IT CURRICULA: Curriculum development has exceeded goals. 33 programs have been developed to Consortium standards and piloted, or readied to pilot in Q9.

Recipient: Bellevue Community College

National dissemination is actively underway. HEALTH IT FACULTY DEVELOPMENT: On time. Round 2 (of 2) offerings are scheduled for Q10. CLOUD BASED ELECTRONIC MEDICAL RECORD ACADEMIC ACCESS: 2 applications are now operable and piloted or scheduled for Q9 pilot. Due to intractable unwillingness to participate on the part of software vendors goals were reconsidered. A series of high quality simulations has been added and is currently under development. NATIONAL VETERANS CAREER SERVICES INITIATIVE: Ahead of time, greatly expanded deliverables. HEALTH IT INDUSTRY EDUCATION COUNCILS: On time with exception of Key Industry Expert Series, which is anticipated in Year 3. PRIOR LEARNING ASSESSMENT: On time. Additional deliverable underway: searchable database of training requirements for military occupations. STUDENT SERVICES: On time. EVALUATION: On time.
