

Mock Exam Worksheet

Directions: Generate exam questions using your text, lecture notes, key word diagrams, question charts, and Learning New Terms glossary for this class. Your questions should be in the same format as the tests for the class (i.e. multiple choice, true/false, essay, etc.). You want it to model an actual test that your professor would write for that class. When you are finished, take the mock exam as you would the actual test, at a desk without any notes, etc. See how you do!
